PUBLIC NOTICE

On April 7, 1993, the applications of Trinity Broadcasting of Florida, Inc. for a renewal of its license to operate WHFT-TV, channel 45, Miami, Florida, and Glendale Broadcasting Corporation, for a new construction permit to own and operate a television station on channel 45 in Miami, Florida were designated for hearing by the Federal Communications Commission.

The application of this station for a renewal of license to operate this station in the public interest was tendered for filing with the Federal Communications Commission on October 1, 1991. After considering this application, the FCC has determined that it is necessary to hold a hearing to decide the following questions:

(a) To determine whether Paul F. Crouch, Trinity Christian Center of Santa Ana, Inc., d/b/a Trinity Broadcasting Network (TBN) or its affiliates exercised de facto control over National Minority TV, Inc.

(b) To determine whether NMTV, Paul F. Crouch, TBN or its affiliates or principals abused the Commission's processes by using NMTV to evade the provisions of Section 72.3555(a) of the
